

Government of Western Australia
Department of Justice

Job Description Form

013612 Principal Human Resource Officer

Safety and Health Branch

POSITION DETAILS

Classification Level: 7
Award/Agreement: PSA 1992 / PSGOGA 2014
Position Status: Permanent
Organisation Unit: Corporate Services Division, Human Resources Directorate
Physical Location: Perth CBD

REPORTING RELATIONSHIPS

Responsible to: 013347 Assistant Director Safety and Health - Level 8

THIS POSITION: 013612 Principal Human Resource Officer - Level 7 (OSH)

Direct reports: Senior Occupational Safety & Health Consultant - Level 5 (Temporary)
Human Resource Officer - Level 5

OVERVIEW OF THE POSITION

The Branch develops frameworks and processes that enable a proactive and superior Safety and Health performance and compliance in accordance with Departmental strategy and strategic policy. The Safety and Health Branch is accountable for managing the workers' compensation, return to work, employee safety and employee assistance processes.

The Principal Human Resource Officer (OSH) is responsible for leading a team which implements and improves systems, processes and practices to enable the effective management of Occupational Safety and Health (OSH), risk management and injury prevention. The incumbent will oversee the provision of expertise, advice and assistance to the Department on OSH and regulatory requirements.

JOB DESCRIPTION

As part of the Safety and Health team, the successful applicant will be expected to:

- Maintain focus on the Department's goals concerning safety, security and rehabilitation;
- Work to improve communication and model integrity and respect in all interactions;
- Operate within the Department's Corporate Governance Framework, policies and procedures and ensure effective transparency and accountability of all Department activity;
- Operate within chain of command facilities to coordinate activities required to meet the Department's strategic objectives;
- Work collaboratively to achieve common goals and best practice and facilitate business improvements as appropriate;
- Facilitate cultural and management reforms within the Department through leadership and engagement; and
- Represent the Department's interest on committees and working groups as required.

ROLE SPECIFIC RESPONSIBILITIES

Duties include, but are not limited to, the following points:

- Leads a team which implements and improves systems, processes and practices to enable the effective management of OSH, risk management and injury prevention whilst ensuring compliance with legislation, strategy, conditions and standards required by the Department and Worksafe WA.
- Manages the provision of accurate reports of relevant OSH data to the Department.
- Oversees the provision of expertise, advice and assistance to the Department on OSH and regulatory requirements including conducting workplace audits and assessments which make recommendations for improvements where necessary.
- Develops relationships and engages with relevant external regulatory bodies.
- Collaborates with the Academy to prepare and deliver training which educates line managers and employees on OSH matters ensuring awareness of their roles and responsibilities.
- Responsible for the development, maintenance, review and promulgation of OSH policies and procedures.
- Manages any contracts relevant to OSH.
- Responds to ministerial and parliamentary questions and cabinet submissions as required.
- Other duties as required in accordance with strategic objectives, business plans, local workload priorities and performance management plans.

JOB RELATED REQUIREMENTS

In the context of the role specific responsibilities of this position, able to demonstrate the following capabilities:

1. Strategic Alignment - Leads the human resources function in providing a people strategy to the organisation

An ability to: manage an effective people strategy by influencing the environment the Department operates within whilst embodying relevant legislation; and lead and communicate responses and plans to address trends, issues and influences impacting on the human resources function.

2. Results Driven - Build capability in the WA Government and communicate the role of human resources and managers

An ability to: influence and communicate the alignment and contribution of innovative human resources activities, strategies and initiatives which embody good practice to government and Departmental objectives; direct and communicate the identification and management of risk; and influence and coach managers to build employee capability.

3. Workforce Capacity - Promote the people strategy for the present and future workforce

An ability to: direct the monitoring and assessment of organisational climate and employee engagement; lead and influence workforce planning activities to ensure the availability of a skilled and motivated workforce to meet current and future Departmental goals; and lead and promote support to managers to effectively manage the development, performance and behaviour of employees.

4. Relationship Management - Represent the human resources function in key relationships

An ability to: lead and influence communication and consultation channels with internal and external stakeholders to share information, perspectives and knowledge which support a collaborative, innovative and values based culture; and lead and influence managers to understand their people management responsibilities.

5. Credible Influence - Be a credible influence and champion for the human resources function within and outside of the organisation

An ability to: demonstrate personal and professional integrity at all times consistent with the WA public sector Code of Ethics and Departmental code of conduct; make sound, rational and ethical decisions; embody and apply expertise to advise and influence others in their decision making; be accountable for decisions and actions and those of the human resources function; take responsibility for self and team in delivering quality outcomes which meet objectives; and communicate clearly and confidently across all levels of the Department.

6. Professional Expertise - Embody human resources expertise and create a learning culture for the human resources function and the organisation

An ability to: demonstrate self-awareness and commitment to personal development to the human resources function and across the organisation; recognise and develop capabilities to meet performance expectations and seek additional expertise when required; coach and influence to translate human resources theory into practice to deliver value to the Department; and lead the delivery of human resources services and tools that improve workforce performance and people management expertise across the Department.

7. Culture and Change Management - Influence and shape culture and direct change processes required to support desired organisational culture

An ability to: work with the Executive to articulate vision for the Department and communicate the need for change when required; lead and influence the design and delivery of innovative people practices to enable a positive culture; influence processes and provide support to the Department when change is required; and influence employees to understand the impact of their behaviour on Departmental culture.

SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS/EQUIPMENT

Nil

CERTIFICATION

The details contained in this document are an accurate statement of the duties, responsibilities and other requirements of the job.

COMMISSIONER

Signature: _____ Date: _____

HR CERTIFICATION DATE: _____