CONTEXT

The Department of Education is Western Australia's largest public sector employer with approximately 45,000 staff or one third of the Government workforce in around 800 worksites.

We provide a system of public schools in which our aim is to ensure that every school is a good school, every teacher is effective and every student is successful.

The Department's other key responsibilities include:

- regulation of non-government schools in accordance with Part 4 of the School Education Act 1999
- administration of state funding to non-government schools
- higher education policy and planning
- legislative reviews
- providing Secretariat services to the Teachers Registration Board of Western Australia, the Training Accreditation Council and the School Curriculum and Standards Authority.

The principles underpinning the Department's operations in Western Australia are:

- working collaboratively to achieve outcomes
- accepting responsibility and accountability for the achievement of outcomes
- enabling flexible, innovative and diverse work practices
- promoting confidence in the professional judgement of the Department's staff.

All Department actions are guided by four core values: Learning, Excellence, Equity and Care.

ROLE

The Library Officer:

- provides general clerical and library support, including preparing correspondence and booking equipment and facilities
- maintains the resources and environment of the school library to support the learning outcomes of students
- operates library systems which ensure library records are up-to-date and library resources are maintained and processed so they are accessible and available to students, staff and parents at all times
- deals with enquiries and guides students, staff and parents in locating library resources and information
- collects and receipts money in accordance with Departmental procedures, as required
- directs and coordinates the activities of library volunteers.

OUTCOMES

1. Information in the library catalogue system and other library systems is accurate and up-to-date; all new resources, deleted and archived items are recorded and resources are correctly bar coded.
2. Loans and returns of library resources are processed in a timely and effective manner; including follow-up on unreturned or damaged resources; to ensure access and availability at all times.
3. The library environment is safely maintained and at an acceptable level of tidiness; including the maintenance of equipment and displays, repairing damaged books and covering new books.
4. Monies paid to the library are receipted and accounted for in accordance with Departmental procedures.
5. Library volunteer activities are directed and coordinated.
6. General clerical tasks are completed effectively and in a timely manner, including bookings of equipment and facilities, preparation of routine correspondence, assistance with stocktaking, and monitoring and ordering of consumables.
7. Effective working relationships are developed and maintained with students, parents and staff on library matters.
