

2027 Graduate Program

Graduate Program Application Checklist

The following documents must be submitted for assessment to be considered eligible for the Department of Treasury and Finance's 2027 Graduate Program.

Please ensure all documents attached are in PDF or Word format. If your attachments are password protected or corrupted, your application may be jeopardised.

	Document	Sub- mitted?
1	Evidence of Australian citizenship*, Australian permanent residency, or New Zealand citizenship with Special Category Visa *Please submit evidence of citizenship even if you were born in Australia (e.g. Australian birth certificate, Australian passport, Australian citizenship certificate)
2	A copy of your most recent official academic transcript (screenshots from online portals will not be accepted)
3	A current CV (maximum 2 pages) outlining your work and academic experience, achievements, extra-curricular involvements, and/or leadership roles you have undertaken, including details of two (2) professional referees which may include your university lecturers
4	Your completed Graduate Program Application Checklist

I declare that all documents and information I have submitted are correct and accurate. If not, or if any documents are missing, I understand I may not be eligible to be considered for the 2027 Graduate Program.

Applicant name: _____ Date: _____