

Graduate Aboriginal Engagement Program

The Graduate Aboriginal Engagement Program will provide you exciting, diverse and hands-on practical experience through a two-year rotational program within our Transport Portfolio Aboriginal Engagement Branch.

Begin your Career at Main Roads!

At Main Roads, our vision for reconciliation is to continue to drive positive relationships between Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal Australians, building mutual respect and understanding with Aboriginal communities and stakeholders.

This is an exciting opportunity to join the newly created Transport Portfolio Aboriginal Engagement team, comprising of professionals from Main Roads, Department of Transport, Public Transport Authority, Office of Major Transport Infrastructure Delivery, METRONET and Westport.

As Graduate Aboriginal Engagement, you will be involved in a multiagency program that is centred around enhancing and building Aboriginal engagement through improving contracting opportunities and optimising culturally safe working environments.

Be part of a team that is focused on:

- Improving contract opportunities for Aboriginal businesses supporting employment, and developing business capability for Aboriginal people within the Transport Portfolio.
- Building relationships with education, training, employment, and small business development providers to create pathways for Aboriginal people to gain sustainable employment

- providing support and advice to agency counterparts, including training in Aboriginal Participation reporting systems, input on Aboriginal Participation Plans and driving continuous improvement on the integration of Participation initiatives.
- enhancing culturally safe working environments; provide opportunities for immersive cultural training programs; provide strategic advice on traditional/ ceremonial practices, consultation, and engagement activities.

Our Commitment to Your Development

In addition to practical 'on the job' learning, you will be provided with a professional training program, a comprehensive support network and an individual career, training and development plan.

Considerable thought and planning is undertaken to ensure you establish a strong foundation of skills for a successful and rewarding career at Main Roads.

We want to hear from you!

We are looking for an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander graduate, who would like to join us on our journey of enhancing, engaging, and improving Aboriginal Engagement and Business Participation across the Transport Portfolio.

We are committed to achieving a diverse workforce and strongly encourage Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people to apply
