

Graduate Communications

The Graduate Communications Program will provide you exciting and diverse experiences planning and delivering communications across internal and external channels through a two-year rotational program.

Begin your Career at Main Roads!

You'll be part of our Strategy and Communications Directorate and embark on a two-year rotational program helping raise awareness and understanding of the Agency's projects, initiatives and activities across a range of internal and external communication channels.

You'll be part of a team creating content for our social media channels, planning campaigns, writing media releases, annual reports, planning events and developing strategies to engage local communities on our transport infrastructure projects - no two days will be the same!

Depending on your skills, strengths, and interests, you will spend a rotation in one or more of the following areas:

- Internal Communications and Events
- Customer Relationship Management
- Strategy
- Digital Communications
- Major Project Communications

Your Development

In addition to the practical on-the-job learning on your rotations, all of our graduates are provided with a classroom-led training program, a comprehensive support network and an individual career, training and development plan.

Considerable thought and planning is undertaken to ensure you establish a strong foundation of skills for a successful and rewarding career at Main Roads.
