Role of Treasury

The Department of Treasury (Treasury) seeks to achieve value for money outcomes for the people of Western Australia through our inspired people expert analysis and independent advice. The Department consists of the Treasury business and the Public Utilities Office (PUO).

The Treasury business provides economic and financial management and advice to Government. This includes the formulation, implementation and monitoring throughout the year of the State Budget; economic and revenue forecasting; revenue policy advice; advice and analysis on financial arrangements with the Commonwealth; advice on infrastructure policy and planning; advice on the State's financial management framework; and management of the Public Ledger.

The PUO provides quality advice on energy policy issues, including effective and efficient regulatory frameworks; security and reliability of supply; technology trends; consumer protection; and affordability.

Role Description

This role is included as part of the intake for Treasury's 2019 Graduate Program. The role is required to contribute to the development and delivery of high quality and timely evidence based policy analysis and advice to inform government decision making. This is achieved by engaging stakeholders, anticipating issues, being solutions focused and implementing outcomes in a whole-of-government environment.

The role will be required to undertake the following activities (but not limited to):

- Contribute to the preparation of evidence-based advice on economic, financial, policy and social issues;
- Research, analysis and evaluation of quantitative and qualitative data to assess programs and identify trends;
- Analysis of business cases and submissions; and
- Undertake project work as required.

Essential Capability Requirements

The five core capabilities below form part of Treasury's Capability and Leadership Framework and are also based on the Public Sector Commission's Capability Profile. They articulate the desired behaviours and skills required for successful performance in a role at Treasury. Each capability is supported by a set of behavioural indicators which are accessible from the Department of Treasury website (www.treasury.wa.gov.au) Careers page.

Applicants will be assessed on the following essential capability requirements. You will need to ensure you consider the behavioural indicators relevant to the classification level and within the context of the advertised role.
