ABOUT THE MUSEUM

The Western Australian Museum is home to the State’s scientific and cultural collection, which it makes accessible to the community through research, exhibitions and public programs. It provides opportunities for all West Australians to express their sense of being, celebrate their cultural heritage and identity, and embrace their shared existence. It is a place where people can share stories and experiences. It adheres to principles of mutual understanding and natural justice. The Museum’s exploration, research and interpretive work in the sciences and humanities is world leading.

The Museum currently has six public sites: WA Maritime Museum, WA Shipwrecks Museum, Museum of Geraldton, Museum of the Goldfields, and Museum of the Great Southern. The Perth site is temporarily closed while we build the New Museum for WA.

The Museum is a Statutory Authority within the Department of Local Government, Sport and Cultural Industries (DLGSC). The Department facilitates lively communities and the economy and the offering of outstanding and inclusive sporting and cultural experiences to local, interstate and international visitors.
