CONTEXT

The Department of Education is Western Australia's largest public sector employer with approximately 45,000 staff or one third of the Government workforce in around 800 worksites.

We provide a system of public schools in which our aim is to ensure that every school is a good school, every teacher is effective and every student is successful.

The Department's other key responsibilities include:

- regulation of non-government schools in accordance with Part 4 of the School Education Act 1999
- administration of state funding to non-government schools
- higher education policy and planning
- legislative reviews
- providing Secretariat services to the Teacher Registration Board of Western Australia, the Training Accreditation Council and the School Curriculum and Standards Authority.

The principles underpinning the Department's operations in Western Australia are:

- working collaboratively to achieve outcomes
- accepting responsibility and accountability for the achievement of outcomes
- enabling flexible, innovative and diverse work practices
- promoting confidence in the professional judgement of the Department's staff.

All Department actions are guided by four core values: Learning, Excellence, Equity and Care.

OUTCOMES

The following principal professional practice outcomes are sought, ensuring every opportunity is available for quality learning and success for all students, as detailed in the Australian Professional Standard for Principals (July 2011).

1. Effective teaching is achieved through promotion of a positive culture of challenge and support that develops enthusiastic, independent learners, committed to life-long learning.
2. High expectations are set for the whole school and achieved through collaborative planning, monitoring and review of the effectiveness of learning.
3. High standards of behaviour and attendance are evident, with active student engagement.
4. The school has a professional learning community focused on the continuous improvement of teaching and learning, and all staff are supported to achieve high standards and develop their capacity through performance management, ongoing professional learning and regular feedback.
5. Accrued leave of staff is managed effectively.
6. Commitment to ongoing personal professional development, health and wellbeing is given in order to manage the complex range of capabilities and actions required in the role.
7. Clear, evidence-based improvement plans and policies for the school's development and its facilities are produced and implemented collaboratively.
8. Leading and managing innovation and change to ensure the school's vision and strategic planning is implemented across the school and goals are achieved.
9. A range of data management methods and technologies is used to efficiently organise and manage the school's resources and staff, providing an effective and safe learning environment, including appropriate delegation of tasks and monitoring of accountabilities.
10. Successful management of the school is built through effective collaboration with the School Council/Board, parents, networks and others.
11. A culture of high expectations is achieved that takes account of the school's wider community, education systems and sectors, developing and maintaining positive partnerships with students, families and carers, and all those associated with the school's broader community.
12. An ethos of respect exists, taking account of the intellectual, cultural, moral, social, health and wellbeing of students.
