Do you have any convictions for any offences from any court or are you currently the subject of and charge pending before any court? You do not need to give details of any conviction which you have had declared spend (Spent Convictions Act 1988). Note: A criminal record does not necessarily disqualify an applicant. If rejection of your application is considered solely because of a criminal record, you will be given the opportunity to discuss the matter fully before a final decision is made.

There is an onus on potential employees to inform the Department of matters that are relevant to your employment. Such matters would include, but not limited to: health, workers compensation claims, qualifications, training, and experience. This information needs to be provided if it in any way impacts on your ability to perform the duties of the position. It must be highlighted that the disclosure of relevant matters that impact on your ability to perform the duties of the proposed position is not a barrier to the consideration of your employment application. The Department is an equal opportunity employer and efforts will be made, where appropriate, to accommodate special needs.

To the best of your knowledge are there any relevant matters that would impact on your ability to perform the duties of the proposed position? (If yes please give details) Note: Non-disclosure of such matters may have an adverse effect on your employment if discovered at a later time.

By submitting this application I am declaring all statements in the application to be true and correct, to the best of my knowledge, at the time it was submitted. I acknowledge that the information I am providing will be relied on in assessing my application and that, if I am appointed to this position, any significant information that is found to be false or misleading may make me liable for disciplinary action including possible dismissal.
