Instrumental Music School Services

Advertised Vacancy Number: SS/TCH548614

This is a permanent Part-time 0.5 position commencing Term 2, 2022

Instrumental Music School Services is seeking an experienced Contemporary Guitar and Bass teacher for the Australind area.

Ideally applicants will have suitable experience in the following to undertake this specialised Music role:

- High level performance standards in a variety of Contemporary and Jazz styles on guitar and bass.
- Improvisation in a variety of styles including in a soloist capacity.
- Sight reading of treble and bass clef appropriate to each instrument.
- Direction of contemporary ensembles and an ability to include multiple instruments/vocalists in contemporary ensembles larger than the conventional size.
- Assembling and operating PA systems and other equipment associated with ensembles.

Additionally, experience of the following will be highly regarded:

- Writing arrangements for contemporary ensembles that can include woodwind, brass, keyboards and other instruments.
- Playing a simple drum kit including straight and swung quavers; simple electric keyboard parts including organ/synthesizer, and providing simple coaching for vocalists in ensembles including harmony coaching.

We are looking for candidates who adopt a flexible approach to their working day and who will embrace the opportunity to work within a variety of environments. The successful applicant will be required to teach in small groups, a range of students from years 7 – 12 in a variety of schools within the Albany and Denmark area. As a Classical Guitar, Contemporary Guitar and Bass teacher, you will be expected to conduct ensembles in some of the schools in which you work. You would be responsible for negotiating your own timetable with the schools in your allocation.

The Instrumental Music School Services employs dedicated instrumental teachers who are passionate in their chosen field. There is a particularly close collegial relationship amongst staff that allows for significant professional growth as a teacher and musician.

Our services enhance student learning in music through the provision of instrumental music tuition in schools and school clusters, offering music as part of their curriculum provision in the Arts learning area. The primary function of the Classical Guitar, Contemporary Guitar and Bass Teacher is to provide a quality music education to students through tuition that embraces the principals of the WA Curriculum.

We currently have more than 230 teaching staff who work in over 460 metropolitan and country primary and secondary schools, providing instrumental instruction to approximately 17,000 students from Years 3 to 12. In addition to weekly small group instrumental lessons, students have opportunities to participate in enrichment music activities which combine students working collaboratively across year levels and with students from other schools.

This selection process will initially be used to fill the above vacancy. Applicants assessed as suitable during this selection process may be considered for other similar vacancies that occur throughout our school for up to 12 months following this initial appointment. This includes circumstances where this position becomes subsequently vacant should the successful applicant decline or vacate the advertised position.

To be suitable for this role, you will need to demonstrate your competency against the following domains (that govern the Australian Professional Standards for Teachers):
