

Western Australia Health – comparable hospital settings

Information on comparable hospital settings for Junior Medical Staff working or planning to work in Western Australia.

Requirements

Junior medical officers considering work as a Resident Medical Officer (RMO) or Registrar in the Western Australian public health system, are required to have worked for a minimum of 6 months as a registered medical practitioner in an Australian hospital or comparable hospital setting within the last 3 years.

Countries considered comparable

Austria	Belgium	Canada
Czech Republic	Denmark	Finland
France	Germany	Greece
Iceland	Israel	Italy
New Zealand	Norway	Portugal
Republic of Ireland	Singapore	Spain
Sweden	Switzerland	The Netherlands
United Kingdom	United States of America

For more information on junior medical officers opportunities / comparable hospital setting information, please contact us at JMOCareers@health.wa.gov.au

