The Education Assistant (Lead) (EAL) assists teachers in delivering planned education programs. The EAL works under limited guidance and can be expected to participate within a team situation, offering advice and expertise in their relevant area.

Education outcomes are determined by the teacher, or other professional, with the EAL performing tasks which require discretion in problem solving, decision making, and choosing methods and processes to achieve outcomes. Performance of these tasks may require activities within or outside the school that result in supervision of students without the presence of a teacher. The EAL applies techniques, skills and knowledge of relevant principles and practices acquired through previous experience as an Education Assistant (Mainstream) and/or Education Assistant (Special Needs) and exercises appropriate discretion and confidentiality.
