

Urban and Regional Planning Cadet

The Urban and Regional Planning Cadetship program at Main Roads is designed to provide University students studying Urban and Regional Planning with tuition fee support, paid study, paid vacation work and career opportunities with Main Roads.

Starting your career with Main Roads!

Our goal is to help you grow. As a leader, as a thinker and as a valued member of our team, who has a direct impact on our communities.

We are looking for enthusiastic and invested students who are passionate about urban and regional planning.

If you are keen to live and work in Western Australia and want to make a meaningful impact by contributing to the planning and integration of transport corridors that move people and freight we want to hear from you.

In return, Main Roads will provide valuable development opportunities and financial support:

Tuition Fee Support - compulsory tuition fees paid at the beginning of each semester.

Paid Study - fortnightly sustenance allowance

Vacation Work – gain hands on practical experience with summer vacation employment

Upon completion of your degree, you will commence our two-year graduate program, which offers structured rotations and a formal learning and development program.

Program Benefits

- Get paid while you study!
- Your work experience/practical placement is sorted for you!
- Participate in the integration of land use with the road network requirements of future road and coordination planning.
- Build working relationships with industry professionals through hands-on practical experience
- Get involved in an active social club and start your career with a healthy work/life balance
- Create professional and personal connections

Are You Ready?

We are seeking highly motivated students who aren't afraid to tackle a challenge and thrive working in teams to help drive our commitment to building a better WA.
